Dear Mr Kačmár

I noticed with interest your advertisement for baker in Vilka.

I recently graduated from Cambridge University with a degree in Mathematics. I have always had a strong interest in gastronomy. My high degree of motivation has been appreciated by my previous employers. From my enclosed CV you will find that my skills meet the requirements you have outlined for the position.

I am confident that I can perform the job effectively, and I am excited about the idea of working for your company. I would like very much to talk with you concerning a position at your Manna bakery.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Matej Babej
