

Provence

FESTIVAL DE CANNES

Basic facts:

- a region of south-eastern France
- stretches along the Mediterranean
- includes departments of Var, Vaucluse, Bouches-du-Rhône, Alpes-de-Haute-Provence and Alpes-Maritimes
- it was the first Roman province outside Italy → there are still many Roman monuments to be found there
- usually enjoys hot Mediterranean summers lasting from May until August

Why do I want to visit Provence?

The answer is simple – I'm obsessed with everything connected to France, I love hot weather and I would like to feel the calm atmosphere near the Mediterranean.

What is special about Provence?

- the largest lavender fields in the world
- wild horses in Camargue
- film festival in Cannes
- an ancient Roman aqueduct bridge Pont du Gard
- many famous painters like Vincent van Gogh or Paul Cézanne lived there
